

19th Nordic Workshop on Bibliometrics and Research Policy

Reykjavik, 25 – 26 September 2014

Venue: University of Iceland, Aula of the University in the Main Building

Programme

Wednesday 24 September

19:00-20:30	Registration and reception Workshop participants are invited to a welcome reception on Wednesday 24 September at Hotel Reykjavik Centrum , located in Aðalstræti 16 in Reykjavik centre. Participants can register for the workshop at the reception. After the reception, participants might want to go for a walk in the city centre even visit one of many restaurants.
--------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Workshop programme

Each presentation shall take 20 minutes with discussion. The chair will coordinate discussions and will be strict on time limit.

Workshop content:

- A. Web of Science, Scopus, and beyond
- B. Metrics and social media
- C. Funding and evaluation regimes
- D. Internationalization
- E. Book publishing
- F. Methods
- G. Institutional and national performance

Chair: Thorvald Finnbjörnsson

Thursday 25 September

9:00-9:15	Workshop opening Jón Atli Benediktsson , Pro-Rector of Academic Affairs at the University of Iceland
9:15-10:00	Keynote speech: Bibliometrics between ambition and responsibility Dr. Sybille Hinze , Institute for Research Information and Quality Assurance, Berlin
10:00-10:40	Session A: Web of Science, Scopus, and beyond <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Comparison of coverage and citation matching in Google Scholar, Web of Science and Scopus. Peter Sjögarde • Citations beyond WoS: a delineation of non-source citations in political science. Pei-Shan Chi
10:40-11:00	Coffee break

11:00-12:20	Session B: Metrics and social media <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tweet or publish: An analysis of Association of American Universities (AAU) scholars on Twitter. Timothy D. Bowman • The heterogeneity of social media metrics and its effects on statistics. Rodrigo Costas, Stefanie Haustein and Vincent Larivière • The Societal Impact of History Texts: Lay Readership and the 'Altmetric' value of Goodreads. Alesia Zuccala, Frederik Verleysen and Tim Engels. • Automated arXiv feeds on Twitter: On the role of bots in scholarly communication. Stefanie Haustein, Kim Holmberg, Timothy D. Bowman and Vincent Larivière
12:20-13:20	Lunch
13:20-14:40	Session C: Funding and evaluation regimes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The heterogeneous landscape of bibliometric indicators: Evaluating models for allocating resources at Swedish Universities. Björn Hammarfelt, Gustaf Nelhans, Pieta Eklund • Can money steer the scientific publishing? Evaluation of a local performance based model. Leif Eriksson • Authorship in Academia. Dorte Henriksen
14:40-15:40	Session F: Methods <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can we use co-word analysis and bibliometric maps for detecting mega trends in the green transition of the urban areas? Rasmus Vendelbo and Lund Jensen. • Validity Issues of Bibliometric and Performance Indicators: What we can learn from the case of humanities. Michael Ochsner, Sven E. Hug, and Hans-Dieter Daniel. • The 'recruitment' rate of new scientists publishing highly cited publications. Jesper Wiborg Schneider, Zeynep Kaplan and Costas Comesana.
15:40-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:00	Session on products and services: Products for aiding bibliometric measurement. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thomson Reuters. Ann Beynon, Manager of Pre-Sales Support, Thomson Reuters. Thomson Reuters database InCites tool.   THOMSON REUTERS  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Elsevier, Mrs. Floortje Flippo, Research Intelligence Solution Sales Manager and Guillaume Warnan, Research Intelligence Consultant, Scopus database, SciVal tool.
19:30	Dinner. At own cost.

Friday 26 September

8:00-9:20	Session D: Internationalisation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Iceland International Collaboration. A “bird’s eye view” on publication patterns & opportunities for collaboration. Guillaume Warnan. Changing patterns of international scientific collaboration. Dag W. Aksnes, Thed N. van Leeuwen, Gunnar Sivertsen and Erik van Wijk. Internationalization in Nordic sociology and the relation to American Sociology. Gunnar Sivertsen. Social Academic Networking of Nordic Countries in the field of Biochemistry – A scientometric approach. Dr.J.P.S.Kumaravel, Dr.A.Manoharan and Dr.D.Alex.
9:20-10:20	Session E: Book publishing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bibliometric profiling of monograph authors in the Social Sciences and Humanities. Frederik Verleysen and Tim Engels. Disciplinary differences in concentration of publications to journals. Hanna-Mari Puuska, Janne Pölönen. Book editors as nodes in a collaboration network in the Social Sciences and Humanities. Truyken Ossenblock, Raf Guns and Mike thelwall.
10:20-12:00	Session G: Institutional and national performance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Polar research at the University of Bergen – a bibliometric approach. Susanne Mikki. Factors influencing the scientific productivity of university departments and research institutes. Dag W. Aksnes and Kristoffer Rørstad. Research performance of PhD students and different categories of faculty members at Chalmers University of Technology. David Minguillo, Maria Prager and Hanna-Kari Andeersson. Economic Growth, Population Growth and Research Productivity of Nordic countries – A Scientometricians view with special reference to Arthritis Research. Dr.M.Nagarajan, R.Abarna, Dr.L.Mohamed Idhris and Dr.T.P.M.Library. Systems of Nanotechnology Innovation in Turkey from an Institutional Perspective. Assist. Prof. Dr. Zeynep Kaplan
12:00-13:00	Light lunch
13:00	Excursion to Reykjanes Peninsula Shortly after lunch an excursion will be organised for participants, around the spectacular Reykjanes Peninsula, accompanied by a geologist. The Peninsula is unique for its geological conditions. Please note that we need a minimum of 20 participants for the excursion. The price is 75 euros pr. person. Please note that weather can be unpredictable in Iceland at that time so please bring suitable clothing for wind and rain as well as for cold bright weather.