Estonia Partner search

Cooperation projects, music

The Estonian Arnold Schönberg Society is interested to be a partner in cooperation in projects. Today, all members of Estonian Arnold Schönberg Society are professional musicians: composers, performers, researchers and teachers of music. Already in January 1988, the musicians who later founded the society had begun to organize Pärnu Days of Contemporary Music (PNP) in order to study and perform new music that was not taught and discussed in music schools.

Please share the request with possible interested organizations.
